Photos and Videos of Event

- You are welcome to take photos and videos at the Event for your own use. For professional photos, please contact Shannon Brinkman, the official photographer. Please note that Shannon is onsite for the benefit of the riders. If there are additional photos that you would like her to take (including your sponsored jump, for example), she must know in advance and she will need to be compensated for these photos. Shannon generously allows the Event for a fee to select some of her photographs after the Event (not immediately available) to be used for promotional purposes of the Event, but does not specifically specific photos without knowing to do so. Please contact Shannon directly if you wish to order any photographs from her. Her email is photo@shannonbrinkmann.net. Please note that Shannon retains the copyright in all her images unless other arrangements are made directly between you and her.
