EVENT EXPERIENCE: SPECTATOR HIGHLIGHTS

COMPETITION HIGHLIGHTS

Dressage (Thursday and Friday)

While this phase doesn't have the same adrenaline component as cross-country or show-jumping, it takes enormous skill, training and concentration for the horse and rider to be in tune with each other's movements in these highly technical and precise maneuvers. The dressage test in the program will help you follow along this part of the event.

Cross-Country (CCI1*/2*/3* Saturday, CIC3* Sunday)

As the feature and special phase of the 3-Day Event, there are a few things to know. There are maps in the program and drawings on the CIC3* jumps so you see what obstacles the competitors face.

Show Jumping (CIC3* Saturday, CCI1*/2*/3* Sunday)

As with the other two phases, please maintain respectful silence while the competitor is jumping, to allow for concentration by the horse and rider. Applause is welcome at the end of the ride.

SAFETY CONSIDERATIONS

Horses, by their nature, are spooky and flighty herd animals. Therefore, there are a few important things in mind. Although the competing horses are more trained and exposed to challenging situations in competition environments, please observe the following for your and their safety:

- Dogs must be on leash at all times
- Please refrain from running close to a horse, especially from behind.

- Please keep track of your children.
- Please maintain respectful silence during dressage and when a rider is negotiating an obstacle, to ensure good rider focus.
- Please refrain from shouting directions to a rider, it could cause an unintentional elimination
- Please stay outside the strings of the galloping lanes and use only designated crossings, when allowed to do so in between competitors.

SPECIAL EVENTS AND THEMES

Off-Track Thoroughbred Highlights

Thoroughbred recognition and incentives are a big part of this Event. Competitors with Thoroughbreds compete for additional $15,000 in prize money, and we have again teamed up with the Retired Racehorse Project for a few other highlights:

- Jen Roytz, the Executive Director of RRP, will moderate the Friday Ladies' Lunch
- Jen Roytz will provide commentary about competing Thoroughbreds and RRP
- Tik Maynard Horsemanship Presentation with his Off-Track Thoroughbred, on Saturday at noon in the Main Arena
- Elisa Wallace, winner of the Most Wanted Thoroughbred Award at the 2018 Thoroughbred Makeover, will present a "Mustangs Can be Fancy" demonstration at 1:30 on Saturday in the Main Arena
- Off-track Thoroughbred sale showcase. At the yearling barn, there will be a select group of newly retired off-Track Thoroughbred prospects available for trial, inspection and sale. Come shop!

Fall Family Festival

Welcome to our Family Fun area located to the southwest area next to the Main Arena and Vendor Village. Please come and enjoy our bouncy houses, face painting, horse themed games and arts and crafts. Have your picture taken with a sweet miniature horse. Cotton candy, popcorn and snow cones also available, and it is all FREE!! We will be open and ready for family fun on Saturday and Sunday from 10 am to 4 pm..

Ladies Day Celebration - FRIDAY NOON

Equestrian sports are the only Olympic sport where men and women compete as equals. Even so, it takes special support and commitment for women riders to make it to the top levels and stay there. There will be a luncheon Celebration of Women in Peak Equestrian Sports, featuring Lynn Symansky, the 2nd top US rider in the 2018 World Equestrian Games Tryon, riding Donner, an off-track Thoroughbred, and Gemma Tattersall, the Gold Medal winner of the eventing discipline at 2018 World Equestrian Games Tryon VIP area in the Clubhouse, Friday noon to 1 pm. Open to VIP only or available for stand-alone access for $75/ticket.

Hip, Handsome and Hoakey Hats Day!

It is equestrian tradition to wear a hat on big competition days, and we are making a fun day of it on Saturday. Following the off-track Thoroughbred demos on Saturday, we will award prizes for the best hats in these categories, so get creative!

- Best Overall
- The Most Hip Hat of the Day
- The Most Handsome Hat
- The Hoakiest Hat
